God's Heavenly Team

By Vince Dorazio

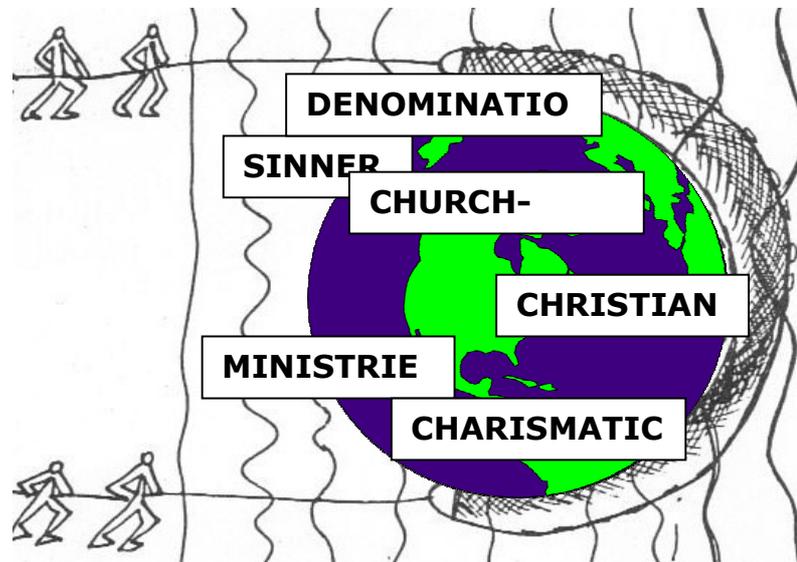

The summer months are slowly coming to an end, and soon it will be the fall season, and that means the football season is upon us. Already football training camps are open. Many veteran players are returning along with new comers with hopes and dreams of being chosen to make the team. During these weeks the football owners, managers and coaches will be not only training these hopefuls, but also deciding who will make the final cut and be chosen to be on the team.

There is no guarantee that any particular player will be selected to make the team, not even veteran players. It all depends on how well they are prepared and how well they are performing. Even through they may have had some good plays and even scored a few points, the final decision rests upon the Manager (Head Coach) and the owner as to who will make the team. It is the same with God and the Kingdom of Heaven.

THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

In the Kingdom of Heaven, God is the Owner, Jesus is the Head Coach (Manager) and the Angels are their helpers. God and Jesus get together and they alone will decide who will make the final cut and who will be on God's Heavenly Team in the Kingdom of Heaven. They will call in their Angels to help with their final decision. In the Gospel according to St. Mathew Jesus gives several images about "The Kingdom of Heaven."

While the Kingdom of Heaven is a Spiritual

Kingdom, Jesus explains it in human earthly language so that His disciples (and us) may understand what He is describing; the Farmer sowing seed; the Yeast in the flour; the Pearl of great price; the Fisherman's Net; etc. (see Matt 13) Jesus explains it perfectly and clearly and there is no misunderstanding about what He says. For instance, the Fisherman's Net: Jesus explains, "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth."(Matt 13:47-50)

The disciples knew and understood clearly what Jesus was saying. They came from a fishing village and some of them were fishermen. This is exactly what they were doing on a daily basis. They also understood that there were all sort of things within the dragnet when they hauled it into their boats and brought it to shore. And they themselves had to separate what was good and what could be salvaged and what was thrown away, Jesus explained the Kingdom of Heaven in terms that they understood.

While the dragnet is still in the water it is collecting all sort of things; the good, the bad, and the ugly. When the appointed time comes (Judgment Day) it is time for God and Jesus to make the final cut. They will call in their Angels to pull in the net and begin separating the good, the bad and the ugly. In the dragnet will be everything on the earth since the beginning of time to the present age. The Angels will find sinners; Christians; non-Christians; leaders; ministries; followers; church-goers; the lukewarm; denominations; the religious; etc. -- and yes, even Charismatic people. Even after the Angels finish separating what they have pulled in from the net, the final decision will be up to Jesus and God as to who will make the final cut and be on God's Heavenly Team. Will you be among the finalists and make the final cut?

GOD WANTS YOU

God wants you on His Team. He has given you the best coach (Jesus) and the best instructor (His Holy Spirit) to help you and guide you to the New Life that awaits you. You can get in spiritual shape with a new beginning with the renewal of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. When you renew your commitment to be on God's Heavenly Team you will receive ALL of what God has to offer. His Holy Spirit will train you in what you are to say and do. His Holy Spirit will guide you to support and bring others to come join the Team as well. You will be blessed with extraordinary gifts you never knew you had. And you will stand side by side with other people just like you, and together you will be a member of God's Heavenly Team. But first there must be a commitment on your part.

Just like the professional football player, they must have a desire and a commitment to want to be chosen for the team. Even the veteran player has to renew his commitment at the training camps. He cannot have a lackadaisical attitude and not be involved. It is the same with a born-again Christian. You must have an enthusiastic attitude about who Jesus is in your life and be willing to share your testimony at any time whenever the occasion arises.

CHARISMATIC PRAYER MEETING

The weekly Charismatic Prayer Meeting is the backbone of the Charismatic Renewal. In a sense, it is like the football training camp. At the prayer meeting you will build up spiritual confidence and renewal as you give your support to others; and you will also receive blessings in return. You cannot take a lackadaisical attitude toward attending the weekly prayer meeting but should be excited and enthused about being a part of God's Team. You should make a commitment to being there every week expecting to see and hear what God is doing and what He has planned for you.

When you attend the prayer meetings with this enthusiastic attitude God takes notice of who you are and informs His personal trainer, the Holy Spirit, to come to you with personal instructions and guidance. God sees potential in you, and He wants you on His Team. With help from His Holy Spirit He knows you will be an asset on His Team and will be an excellent spokesperson for the Kingdom of Heaven. God will do His part if you will do your part. But like I mentioned earlier, there must be a firm commitment on your part.

MAKE THAT COMMITMENT TODAY AND

TEAM
